Customer Reviews

a simple, easy to read summary of most of the cases in the book with the black letter law spelled out at the top.the shorter cases aren't in there and sometimes they simplify the cases to the point of being nonsensical, but overall it provides a nice buffer if you get behind on the reading.3 hole punched, perforated pages, about the thickness of two legal pads, fold out 'quick outline' in the front.

This was very helpful when I was studying for my Torts final exam. I would recommend this book along side a hornbook. This will only help you understand the cases and law applied in them but it is not too in depth with each concept. Very basic, but still helpful.

very condensed version of cases without dissenting opinions (usually). very basic explanations.
